Paradigm Convergence Technologies

Acquires Patent-Pending Technology from Annihilyzer Inc., and Appoints Marty E. Paris Sr. Vice President and Chairman

Lenexa, Kansas, April 20, 2017

Paradigm Convergence Technologies, (Paradigm) has completed the acquisition of patent-pending technology from Annihilyzer, Inc. and has appointed Annihilyzer's CEO, Marty E. Paris, as Sr. Vice President and Chairman of Paradigm. The transaction included an issuance of Bingham shares to Annihilyzer and the grant to Annihilyzer of a three-year license and sub-registration to produce and sell products under Paradigm's EPA Product Registration #82341-4.

The Annihilyzer® System is a revolutionary solution for the product generation, containerization, and delivery with total inventory and activity tracking, reporting, and management of Hydrolyte® "Green Cleaning" and infection control systems for cleaning, sanitizing and disinfecting in hospitals, nursing homes, health care facilities, resorts and hotels, schools, correctional and other facilities. The Annihilyzer® is Green Seal™ Certified and produces two Green Seal™ Certified products (GS-37 and GS-53), which demonstrates highly effective solutions in both cleaning performance and germ control.

Paradigm provides integrated product and technology solutions for total facility cleaning and sanitizing. The acquisition of the Annihilyzer® technology will allow Paradigm to gain a distinct first-mover advantage in the onsite product generation market by providing its proprietary protocols and product and process tracking system to users in all markets.

Marty Paris, as Sr. Vice President of Paradigm's Annihilyzer Division, will apply his proven abilities in innovation, business development and marketing to growing the divisions operations, revenue and earnings. The Annihilyzer Division's mandate includes all green cleaning services and solutions for facilities including On-Site Generation-and-Tracking Systems with an initial emphasis on hospitals, long-term care facilities, other medical services facilities; and, colleges and school systems.

Marty has a proven executive management track record and over 20 years of experience driving sales growth and strategy in the technology industry. He was founder and CEO of B2B Zero, an ecommerce portal that was acquired by Prime ITS where he became Executive Vice President of Business Development and CEO of its subsidiary, Annihilare Medical Systems, and affiliate, Annihilyzer, Inc.

As a partner of MPG-Net, he served as a technology consultant for many years. He was the VP of Sales for ImageX, whose end-to-end printing solution pioneered "web-to-plate" technology and was acquired by FedEx Kinko's. He was the founder and CEO of MyPrintGuys.com, an online printing platform which was acquired by WorldCom sister company, eCommerce Industries. Marty was co-founder and VP of Business Development for Lo-K Systems where he was instrumental in the explosive growth of the kiosk division.
