Bingham Canyon Appoints, Maj. Gen. Darryl W. Burke to its Board of Directors

Lenexa, Kansas, May 1, 2017

The board of directors of Bingham Canyon has appointed Maj. Gen. Darryl W. Burke (USAF) to the board of directors of Paradigm Convergence Technologies and to be a senior advisor to the Bingham Canyon board. CEO Gary Grieco stated: “We are pleased and privileged to announce Gen. Burke’s acceptance of a position on the Paradigm board. This is another major step in our efforts to expand the breadth and depth of the capabilities of our board and senior management team. We believe Gen. Burke’s proven leadership, technical, organizational and management skills will prove an invaluable and independent resource in strategic planning, operational oversight and corporate governance as the company works through its current stage of rapid expansion and growth.”

Maj. Gen. Burke, who will retire this fall, after 34 years in the United States Air Force, served most recently as Commander, Air Force District of Washington for the past three years. In this role, he served as the Commander of Air Force Forces for the Joint Task Force – National Capital Region and was responsible for all aerospace expeditionary forces, homeland operations, civil support, national special security events and ceremonial events, and command level support for 60,000 military and civilian personnel assigned worldwide.

Over the course of his career, General Burke commanded the 82nd Training Wing, 380th Air Expeditionary Wing, National Alliance Treaty Organization’s Flying Squadron One, and the 65th Operational Support Squadron. He also served as the Deputy Commander for the Joint Force Component Command – Intelligence, Surveillance, and Reconnaissance, as well as Vice Commander of 12th Air Force and the 9th Reconnaissance Wing. He also served as the Senior Military Assistant to the Secretary of the Air Force. He is the recipient of numerous U.S. military awards and decorations.

General Burke attended Embry-Riddle Aeronautical University graduating as a Distinguished Graduate of the Air Force Aerospace Studies program and holds a Bachelor’s Degree in Aeronautical Studies and a Master’s Degree in Aeronautical Science. He also holds a Master’s Degree in National Security Strategy from the National War College, Washington D.C.

General Burke currently serves as an Honorary Board Member for the United Services Organization of Metropolitan Washington–Baltimore.
